

2020 Florida Ruminant Nutrition Symposium February 3-5, 2020 | Gainesville, Florida

On behalf of Virtus Nutrition, we would like to invite you to attend the 2020 Florida Ruminant Nutrition Symposium hosted by University of Florida on February 3-5, 2020. The conference will be held at the Best Western Gateway Grand in Gainesville, Florida. This conference will include the latest research and advances on diet formulation and nutritional management of dairy and beef cattle to improve efficiency of nutrient utilization, and animal production, health, and reproduction.

As a proud sponsor, Virtus Nutrition is committed to providing the best resources and tools to better balance fatty acids in dairy cow diets. We are excited to be a part of the conference program this year by offering an exclusive Pre-Program for Virtus sponsored guests on Monday, February 3rd at 8 AM as well as sponsoring the pre-conference on Tuesday, February 4th. Both sessions will include a lineup of experts in fatty acid nutrition.

Our offer to you:

Virtus Nutrition will cover the following:

- Conference registration fee
- 3- night hotel stay at the host hotel for Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday night
- Provide a $300 travel voucher at the time of arrival (to offset transportation costs)

A group dinner will also be included on Tuesday, February 4th. All you will need to book is your transportation to the conference and cover any incidentals.

Please let us know by January 8, 2020 if you can join us by clicking register now! (You do not need to register on the conference website, we will register you for the event). If you have any questions regarding registration, please contact your Virtus Nutrition representative or email: jharvey@omegabalancer.com.
